What is your congregation's or organization's Mission Statement?

We seek God for who God truly is, not who we want God to be.

We pray to do God's will, not for God to do our will.

Our way and God's way are united in love.

We Care – We Worship – We Teach – We Proclaim – We Serve – We Do!

NARRATIVE QUESTIONS

(For each narrative question, please limit your responses to no more than 1500 characters including spaces and punctuation.)

1. What is the congregation's or organization's vision for ministry? Additionally describe how this vision is lived out.

Before you read our responses, we wish to show you a video that reflects our mission and heart. Follow with the link or code below to our "Why Wamego" page and click on the video icon.

Why Wamego | FPCWamego \(firstpresbyterianchurchinwamego.com\)

Our vision for the church in Wamego is to be a public presence for Christ, with a pastor who is active in the community leading a congregation with a heart for service. Our vision for the church is relational, with a pastor who gets to know the members, and with members who embody community during all seven days of the week. COVID and other difficulties have slowed down the vibrant life this congregation enjoyed in prior years, but it can be strengthened anew. The heart and sinews are there, God willing.

2. How do you feel called to reach out to address the emerging needs of your community or constituency?
Wamego is a growing town with growing needs. There is so much that needs to be done among the poor, among the unchurched, among all who need a faith home that teaches love and acceptance. There is so much that this congregation can do with the talents it has. Our call is to reach outside the sanctuary's doors. Our call is to grow a diverse, loving, enthusiastic body of believers inside the church and take those diverse experiences, love, and enthusiasm into the mission field.
3. How will this position help you to reach your vision and mission goals?
In our vision, a pastor's call is to motivate, inspire, encourage, and energize. Our call – pastor and congregation hand-in-hand -- is to the community at large. Stated conversely, a call divorced from the community does not build the body of Christ, inside or outside our doors. A pastor with ideas and a bias for action will find enthusiastic helpers here. A relationship-building pastor will find friends here. This is a call to join us in the arena of faith.

4. Provide a description of the characteristics needed by the person who is open to being called to this congregation and/or organization.

We hope you have watched the video linked in question 1 above to gain a sense of who we ask God to call to us. While we have emphasized relationship building and a heart for mission in these written questions, and while the Leadership Competencies section of this form is prayerfully granular, we appreciate that faith leaders are not created by mixing pre-determined ingredients. Rather, the wonderful diversity of ingredients in each individual makes something entirely unique. We cannot prejudge what mix would qualify a candidate for a call. That chemistry will make itself known upon making your acquaintance.

5. For what specific tasks, assignments, and programs areas will this person have responsibility?

Ministry is not "tasks," "assignments," "and "programs." Ministry is leading people to Christ and nurturing them into mature, active faith. We are a small church. The pastor will be a pastor to people, not to programs. This congregation is not looking for an administrator. We are more than capable of taking care of the money, the property, the insurance, and all those things. We pray for a pastor who believes that God has called all believers to draw people to Christ. We pray for a pastor that will then inspire those so drawn to use their talents to serve the community and to grow the circle of faith.
